NAMES.

A. زبرة البيت

G. Adiavlov.

L. Adianthum Album.

I. Capelli di Venere.

G. Mauer Kraut.

F. Capillaire.

S. Culantrillo de Poço.

D. Steen Ruyte.

WALL RUE or
WHITE MAIDEN HAIR.

PLACE.

On old Stone Walls &c.

DESCRIPTION.

The Roots 1 are brown, fibrous, Continueing fo
Leaves 2, 3, 4, the forepart, and 5, the backpart, a on seperate Stalks, and of Various forms, being smoo ends 6 farthest from the Stalk, of a full Green, whi
The Seed Vessells, 7, on the backs of the Leaves, are colour, which opening discovers the Seeds 8, that are most imperceptible, being magnified there appears a gr
6. the back of a Leaf magnified with the Seeds—7.

VIRTUES.

It is Used in Pectoral Decoctions, and Diuretic

T. Sheldrake del.

M. B. G.